

How does your hearing problem affect what you hear

You have a moderate hearing loss

You may find it more difficult to hear people's voices

You may need to have the t.v on very loudly

You will find it hard to hear people on the telephone

You might be offered a hearing aid or another type of listening device

Other people should use key word signing to help you understand themDN

